

New York and Long Island Lumber Association

2024 Lifetime
Achievement Award

THE SIDER FAMILY
Sider Lumber & Supply Co., Inc.

Frank and Joe Sider, the dynamic father-son duo behind Sider Lumber, are the esteemed recipients of NYLILA's Lifetime Achievement Award. Their dedication to the lumber industry spans decades, marking an impressive 75th anniversary for Sider Lumber in 2023. Frank, born in Bay Shore, NY, and Joe, born in Smithtown, NY, have devoted their careers to the family business, which has been their sole employment.

Under their leadership, Sider Lumber has thrived through three generations, embracing change and growth while maintaining its core values. Both Frank and Joe have earned numerous industry certifications, reflecting their commitment to excellence. They are actively involved in the Smithtown Chamber of Commerce.

Outside of work, Frank enjoys playing cards, softball, and tennis, while Joe is passionate about basketball and tennis. Their shared love for golf also highlights their balanced approach to life. Guided by their motto, "Work hard, play hard," Frank and Joe have not only contributed significantly to the lumber and building materials community but have also set a high standard of professionalism and dedication. Their lifetime of achievements and unwavering commitment to their craft make them deserving recipients of this prestigious award.

---

---